Visit to Oxford University Press

Wednesday 15th August 2007 - 12.15 pm

Dear member

I would like to invite you to join us on an exclusive trip "behind the scenes" around the world-famous Oxford University Press specially arranged for members of the IoL. The OUP is the world's largest university press and publishes more than 4,500 books a year with representation in over fifty countries world-wide. This is an amazing achievement when one considers that the first book was printed over 500 years ago in 1478.

The tour will begin with lunch. This will be followed by a tour of the OUP museum which will give an insight into the history of the OUP and the Oxford English Dictionary. After this, there will be a presentation on how bilingual dictionaries are created together with a demonstration of the Oxford English Corpus. The visit will last around three hours.

Please note that the tour is available for a maximum of 20 people so booking is on a first-come first-served basis. Cost per person £20.00.

I do hope you will be able to take part in this exciting event and look forward to seeing you there.

With best wishes

Stephen Eden
