

Chartered Institute of Linguists Translating Division

The Translators' Arms

Friday 10 February and Friday 9 March 2012

REFLECTION SKILLS FOR TRANSLATORS: A TWO-PART WORKSHOP

led by

Janet Fraser

The concept of the 'reflective practitioner' is frequently cited in discussions on training and professionalism, but what does it actually mean for translators? What do we stand to gain from taking time out from our everyday work to 'reflect' on our practice? What does 'reflecting' involve? And how on earth do we go about it?

Dates: Friday 10 February and Friday 9 March 2012 - see flyer for more details

Time: 12.00-1.30. Tea/coffee will be available from 11.45 for each session

Venue: London Councils
59½ Southwark Street, Southwark, London SE1 0AL

(Nearest Tube stations: London Bridge or Southwark)

Lunch: Please tick the box below if you would like to join colleagues for a café / pub lunch after the event and we will book a table nearby. Please note lunch is not included in the price of the events

Please apply on the tear-off slip to Julie Hobbs, Chartered Institute of Linguists, Saxon House, 48 Southwark St, London SE1 1UN, Tel: 020 7940 3144. APPLICATIONS BY 3 February 2012
